A CURIOUS WATCH.

Made by a Clever Workman on a Challenge From Royalty.

Some years ago the czar, hearing of the marvelous inventive genius of a Polish mechanic, determined to put him to the test and accordingly caused to be forwarded to him a few copper nails, some wood clippings, a piece of broken glass, an old cracked china cup, some wire and a few cribbage board pegs. The box was accompanied by the request that the Pole should transform these unpromising articles into a time-piece.

It was a challenge and one that few watchmakers would have cared to take up. But it would have taken a harder task than this to daunt the Pole. He set to work on the unpromising materials and out of them fashioned a watch that was quickly dispatched to the czar. Just eight hours after he began his work of transformation the watch started on its journey to St. Petersburg, where it arrived safely, to the great delight of the czar.

It was a most unique timepiece, its case being made of china and its works composed of the material that had accompanied the old cup. Yet it kept good time and had to be wound up only once in three or four days. So pleased was the czar that he sent for the Pole and conferred upon him several distinctions, besides granting him a pension.—New York Press.

A TRAGIC OLD CUSTOM.

Human Beings Once Walled Up In Building Foundations.

The practice of putting money under the foundation stone of a new building is the shadow of an older tragic custom. The money stands theoretically for the ransom of the human being who by ancient superstition should have been buried in its place. Otherwise, it was held, the building would not stand firm and endure.

There was a time when this particular kind of human sacrifice had a vogue extending to most parts of the world. Even in England skeletons have been found imbedded in the bases of castle walls, and there is record of one German fortress at the building of which a child was bought from its mother with hard cash and walled into the donjon tower, the unnatural mother, according to the story, looking on the while. Effigies of human beings are still used in some parts of Europe as harmless substitutes, and in remoter and more ruthless places the old custom crops out from time to time in all its grim reality. Within the last century two children, a boy and a girl, were, it was reported, walled into a blockhouse by some laborers at Duga, Austrian Turkey.—Westminster Gazette.

DROWNED IN MISSISSIPPI

John Anderson Falls Off Raft and Drowns Yesterday Afternoon

COMPANIONS TRY TO SAVE HIM

The Three Were Rafting Lumber Across to Repair a Bridge

John Anderson, 35 years of age, married, who came from Iowa a year ago, was drowned in the Mississippi yesterday afternoon near Dr. J. L. Camp's farm while engaged in rafting lumber across the river.

In company with Fred Wolvert and another companion the deceased was engaged in repairing a bridge near the point mentioned. In order to facilitate matters the three of them bunched their lumber and made a small raft, pushed it out into the stream and poled to the opposite bank. Anderson jumped on to the end of the raft which instantly sank beneath his weight. He ran to the end which had tilted up and this dropped, causing him to slip and fall into the river. The others kept poling to prevent the raft from going down stream and floating past their intended landing place, supposing that Anderson would bob up, grab the raft and get on board again. River drivers and others fall into the water so frequently that no attention is sometimes paid to such matters.

He failed to grab the raft the first time he came up and Wolvert sprang to rescue him. He caught him by the hair but Anderson broke away. The second time he came up Wolvert and his companion leaped in to save him but he eluded both and never came up a third time. It is supposed that in his death struggle he gripped the rushes in the bottom of the river and thus prevented his third return to the surface.

Up to midnight the body had not been recovered. Mr. Jones, who lives in the vicinity of the tragedy, brought down the news early this morning and said everybody in the neighborhood was engaged in the search for the missing man.

20 INDIAN BOYS AND GIRLS

Miss Prendergast, Teacher In Charge. Escorts Them From S. D. to Leech Lake

Miss Prendergast, a teacher of one of the Indian schools, arrived in the city today in charge of eleven Indian girls and 9 Indian boys, pupils who have been attending the Indian schools at Flandreau, S. D.

She was accompanying the class of pupils to the new location at Leech Lake and Red Lake. They are all Chippewas and made a brave display with the red and yellow colors of the school.

Miss Prendergast promptly hailed Officer Hegbloom when she arrived at the station and asked him to assist her in rounding up her class should any of them prove truants and try to miss the Minnesota & International train for Leech Lake.

MUSIC AND DRAMA

At the Grand

The bill at the Grand this week is remarked by many visitors to be the best the house has put on for some time. Jack Raymond gives a true impersonation of the race track sport. His delivery is excellent.

Royale & Stearns made the hit of the evening in their playlet entitled, "The Sporting Editor." Royale assumes the part of Aunt Jerusha and eventually marries the "charming" little heroine. He ties the bows on her slippers in such an ingenious manner and proposes so innocently that she accepts him before she knows what is the matter. Their acting and enunciation is the kind one sees and hears but seldom for it is natural and unaffected and makes an instant appeal to the audience.

The films are up to the general high standard set by this theatre. Especially interesting is the one portraying life in the Northwest provinces of Canada.

Miss Smith sings a new illustrated song and Miss Alderman plays her accompaniments in her usually charming manner.

HE TOOK ALL THEY HAD

Boarding House in Southeast Brainerd Robbed Last Week by Transient

STOLE WATCH AND SOME MONEY

News Was Suppressed for a Time in Order to Capture the Man

A Southeast Brainerd boarding house conducted, it is said, by Mr. and Mrs. H. Hendrickson near 15th and Maple streets, was robbed last Wednesday of a gold watch and considerable cash.

News of the robbery was suppressed for a while in order to allow the police time to catch the man who committed the robbery.

He came to the house some time last week saying he was going to work on one of the buildings downtown. About 11 o'clock the next morning while the people of the house were gone he made a clean sweep of the premises, taking a gold watch and $45 cash from Frank Norman's clothes, $5 and $10 here and there from the other boarders' clothes and trunks. One man had 25c in a vest pocket and another 50c saved up to buy snuff with to last him till pay day and the bad robber, without a qualm of conscience took the quarter and the half dollar too. He fled from Brainerd and none of the boarders or the police have seen him since.

Frazier-Parker

Another of Brainerd's popular young ladies was united in marriage last night when Miss Ruth Esther Parker, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel H. Parker, 923 Grove street, and Earl H. Frazier, of Verdale, were made one. The pleasant ceremony was witnessed by a large circle of the immediate relatives and took place at 9 o'clock. The home was very prettily decorated with ferns and pink carnations, and the marriage service was carried out with a charming simplicity. As the soft strains of the wedding march began, the bridegroom, assisted by Quintus Parker, slowly proceeded to the wedding altar which consisted of banked wild ferns and palms and there awaited the coming of the bride who was assisted by Miss Marie Pettit, of Verdale, the bride being tastefully gowned in white batiste with trimmings of baby Irish lace and carrying a bouquet of lilies of the valley, and the bridesmaid being attired in batiste with trimmings of val lace and Swiss embroidery, holding in her hand a cluster of yellow roses.

As they stood at the altar with the lights softened by a red shade of color, Eunice Parker played a simple nocturne as the officiating clergyman, the Rev. Charles Fox Davis, read the lines of the shorter ring service of the Methodist Episcopal church which united them.

After the wedding ceremony a delicate menu was served with Miss Mand Williams and Miss Eunice Parker as the serving maids, to which all sat down.

Among the out of town guests who witnessed the event were Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Frazier and daughter Alice, parents of the bridegroom, and Mrs. William McChesney and daughter June, of Williston, N. D.

The bride is one of the best known young ladies of the town, having lived here all her life and has been teaching for several years past. Mr. Frazier being one of the assistant cashiers in his father's bank at Verdale. Miss Marie Pettit who assisted the bride came down from Verdale for the occasion.

The young couple left for Denver, Col. via Staples and Minneapolis on the midnight train last evening, to be gone for a month on their trip. Her going away attire was an Alice blue cloth suit. The many friends of the young couple wish them much joy in life.

Conant-Senti

The marriage of John C. Conant of this city and Miss Mary Senti, also of Brainerd, was quietly solemnized at the parsonage of the Methodist Episcopal church at 1:30 today. Only a few of the friends of the young couple witnessed the event. They were assisted by James Stage and Miss Mattie Shanks, and the short ring service of the church was used with the Rev. Charles Fox Davis as the officiating clergyman. The young couple left in the afternoon for Duluth to be gone a week after which they will return to Brainerd and make their future home here. Both of the contracting parties are well and favorably known here. Mrs. Conant having lived here all her life, and Mr. Conant is working for one of the diamond drill companies of the city.

First National Bank Block

Did you ever stop to realize that more city property has been sold in the last year than for the last ten years in Brainerd.

You may know what that means if you are a renter. You know too that if you buy a "home" reasonable that you have that satisfaction of not having to "move out" on thirty days notice as "house sold." And then again, one can make improvements from time to time and not notice the expense—only when you find a buyer—getting more than your rent free too.

Let me speak a word to the man that has a home and a little money that we have received our share of sales in city property and have no client that could not make money by selling now—we have the facts.

A home for some one situated on North side, an eight room house, bath, city water, cement basement, in fact everything to make it an ideal home. Barn. Right on the best street—Price $2500.

Small house on south Sixth street, two lots, has been newly painted and papered throughout. Almost new condition.—Price $650.

One of the finest little six room cottages on North-side is placed in our hands for short time. Modern except heat, and in good location with East frontage—Price $2500.

Quite the Contrary.

Many Women who are Splendid Cooks

dread having to prepare an elaborate dinner because they are not sufficiently strong to stand over an intensely hot coal range. This is especially true in summer. Every woman takes pride in the table she sets, but often it is done at tremendous cost to her own vitality through the weakening effect of cooking on a coal range in a hot kitchen.

It is no longer necessary to wear yourself out preparing a fine dinner. Even in the heat of summer you can cook a large dinner without being worn out.

New Perfection WICK BLUE FLAME Oil Cook-stove

Gives no outside heat, no smell, no smoke. It will cook the biggest dinner without heating the kitchen or the cook. It is immediately lighted and immediately extinguished. It can be changed from a slow to a quick fire by turning a handle. There's no drudgery connected with it, no coal to carry, no wood to chop. You don't have to wait fifteen or twenty minutes till its fire gets going. Apply a light and it's ready. By simply turning the wick up or down you get a slow or an intense heat on the bottom of the pot, pan, kettle or oven, and nowhere else. It has a Cabinet Top with shelf for keeping plates and food hot, drop shelves for coffee, teapot or saucepan, and even a rack for towels. It saves time, worry, health and temper. It does all a woman needs and more than she expects. Made with 1, 2, and 3 burners; the 2 and 3-burner sizes can be had with or without Cabinet.

Aeroplane That Flies and Swims.
Captain von Parseval, who arrived at New York recently from Bremen, Germany, is the brother of the aeroplane Major von Parseval and says the major has invented a new aeroplane with flexible wings that has been approved by the German army. It is bigger than any heavier than air machine yet constructed and can not only fly, but when necessary also can swim. The plan of the aeroplane is a secret.

Seizes Rescuer; Both Drown.
Chicago, June 28.—Within sight of a score of men and women Antonio Vija, twenty-years old, and his cousin, George Vija, twenty-six years old, were drowned in the Grand Calumet river at Gary, Ind. George Vija was swimming and was seized with cramps. His cousin plunged into the water to save him. He attempted to drag him to the shore, but the drowning man grabbed him about the throat and the two sank.

Autoists Killed by Car.
Pittsburg, June 28.—Two persons were killed, three dangerously injured and two painfully hurt when a large automobile was struck near Cherokee by one of the heavy suburban cars of the Pittsburg Street Railway company. The dead are: William H. Hamilton, aged thirteen, an undertaker, and his son Roy, aged twenty-two.

THREE HURT; ONE FATALLY

Alcohol Flatiron Explodes, Throwing Burning Fluid Over Woman.

Grinnell, Ia., June 28.—While Mrs. Ralph Montgomery was ironing with an alcohol heated iron the fuel exploded, throwing the burning fluid over her dress, which took fire. Her husband wrapped her in a quilt, but found it too small and started to get another when she, maddened by the pain, jumped out of the window and started for the well. She was overtaken and her father-in-law, Rev. C. H. Montgomery, and her husband succeeded in putting out the fire, though they were burned. Mrs. Montgomery is in a critical condition.

THE MIRROR TONIC.

When a Peek Into a Hand Glass May Help a Patient.

The looking glass, whether a plus or a minus quantity, plays a more important part in the sickroom than most nurses and physicians give it credit for.

"All things considered, I think it a good plan to give a sick person a chance to look at himself occasionally," said a prominent doctor recently. "Of course the indulgence must be granted with discretion. If a patient is really looking seedy a turn at the looking glass is equivalent to signing his death warrant, but if taken at a time when braced up by some stimulant or a natural ebullition of vital force a few minutes of communion with his own visage beats any tonic I can prescribe. It thrills the patient with new hope. It makes him feel that he isn't quite so far gone as he has thought and that possibly a fight for life is, after all, worth while. Being thus sensitive, a persistent withholding of a mirror convinces the patient that he must be too horrible for contemplation, and he promptly decides that the best thing for him to do is to give up the ghost and get out of the way."

"That is one of the mistakes hospitals were apt to make up to a few years ago. When I was a young fellow getting my first practice after graduation I served on the staff of several hospitals, and in all, especially in the free wards, those aids to vanity were strictly forbidden."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

THE TIPPING HABIT.

It Was Worse in the Eighteenth Century Than It Is Now.

The tipping habit is bad enough nowadays, but in the eighteenth century it was a greater evil than it is at the present time. A writer in the Cornhill Magazine tells some stories to illustrate the old condition of things.

In Edinburgh in 1769 tipping became such an evil that the Society of Clerics enacted that all servants should be forbidden to take tips and members be forbidden to give them. This example was followed by other clubs and societies. Today there is a rule in most clubs against feeling the servants.

An eccentric Irish gentleman, Lord Taffie, used to attend his guests to the door, and if they offered any money to the servants who were lined up with the guests' baggage the host would say, "If you give, give it me, for it was I that did buy the dinner."

A well known colonel while sitting at dinner inquired the names of the host's servants. "For," said he, "I cannot pay them for such a good dinner, but I should like to remember them in my will."

Another eccentric gentleman after patiently re-tying his hat, sword, cane and cloak to the very bottom of his purse turned to the two remaining servants who were waiting obsequiously, each with a glove, and said affably: "Keep those. I will not trouble to buy them back. They are old and not worth a shilling."

A King's Trick.
King Gustavus III. of Sweden had been frequently invited to the little court of Schwerin. In 1783 he paid a visit to Germany, and as soon as the Duchess of Mecklenburg heard of his approach she prepared fetes in his honor. But Gustavus, who disdained the petty courts of the small rulers, sent two of his attendants—a page named Peyron and Desvoignes, a valet who had formerly been an actor—to be entertained by the duchess. The two personated the king and his minister, Baron Sparre, and sustained the characters throughout. They accepted as their due all the homage meant for their master, danced with the Mecklenburg ladies who were presented to them, and Peyron went so far as to ask one of the ladies for her portrait. Meantime Gustavus was enjoying himself elsewhere in secret.

Richmond Castle.
Richmond castle was originally one of the strongest of Norman keeps. It was probably founded by Alan Rufus, one of the sons of the Duke of Brittany, who took a prominent part in the suppression of the Saxons. At a later age the castle passed into the possession of Edmund Tudor, who married Margaret Beaufort and became the father of Henry VII. Henry was born Earl of Richmond, and he bestowed the title upon the magnificent palace which when king of England he built upon the banks of the Thames. Thus the Richmond beloved of cockneys has a comparatively modern origin. The curfew, by the way, is still rung from the tower of Richmond castle at 6 a. m. and 8 p. m., a custom "that has continued ever since the time of William the Conqueror."—London Globe.

Game In Manchuria.
The long haired tiger is found throughout Manchuria wherever there is hilly country, but is never found on the plains. It is extremely difficult to bag and is by no means numerous. In addition to tiger the following game may be found in Manchuria: Bear (black and brown), wapiti, Sika deer (two species), roe deer, serow, wild pig, leopard and lynx. All, however, are scarce and hard to bag, with the exception of roe deer and pig.—London Field.

It All Depends.
Teacher—Now, boys, here's a little example in mental arithmetic. How old would a person be who was born in 1875? Pupil—Please, teacher, was it a man or a woman?—London Gentlemen.

Why "White-leaded" Means more than "Painted"

If all paint were made of pure white lead and pure linseed oil, the term "paint" would mean what most people think it means.

But as all paint is not so made, it is necessary to say: "I want my house 'white-leaded.'"

Why?—Because white lead paint, mixed at the time of painting to fit the requirements of the surface covered, penetrates the surface with minute tentacles, clings to it, and forms a tough elastic film on the outside which disintegrates slowly, uniformly, smoothly, evenly. That is—it doesn't scale or chip.

This paint is durable—it postpones repainting day, and never needs the steel scraper or gasoline torch before a new coat can be applied.

Fatally Burned by Hot Metal.

Chicago, June 28.—Three men were probably fatally burned and a score of others were painfully injured as a result of being splashed with molten metal pouring from a blast furnace of the Gary (Ind.) works of the Illinois Steel company. The property loss is estimated at $10,000. The injured were taken to the company's hospital.

Marvelous Discoveries

mark the wonderful progress of the age. Air flights on heavy machines, telegrams without wires, terrible war inventions to kill men, and that wonder of wonders, Dr. King's New Discovery—to save life when threatened by coughs, colds, lagrippe, asthma, creep, bronchitis, hemorrhages, hay fever and whooping cough on lung trouble. For all bronchial affections it has no equal. It relieves instantly. Its surest cure, James M. Black, of Asheville, N. C., R. P. No. 4, writes it cured him of an obstinate cough after all other remedies failed. 50c a bottle. A trial bottle free. Guaranteed by all druggists.
